Alladin's Touch of Magic Brings

Joy to Diabetic Children

Southern California Council of Delta Zeta Sorority will rub the Magic Lamp of Fashion when they stage their eleventh annual "Flame Fantasy" fashion show and luncheon on Feb. 10 in the Los Angeles-Santa Monica Room of the Century Plaza Hotel.

Over 1200 Delta Zeta alumnae and their friends from Santa Barbara to San Diego will share in the magic and splendor of Arabian Nights to carry out the theme of "Aladdin's Fantasy." Chairman of the event is Mrs. Jimmy L. Miller of Los Alamitos, a former South Bay resident.

Delta Zeta's own Edith Head, Academy Award winning costume designer and noted author, will commentate the couturier show which will feature original California designs. The show will be coordinated by June Van Dyke, with music furnished by Hal Sandack and his orchestra.

Grand prize winners will fly on a Delta Air Lines "Magic Circle" trip from Los Angeles to New Orleans, New York, San Juan, Puerto Rico and Montego Bay, Jamaica. Accommodations will include four wonderful and fascinating days at the luxuriously beautiful El San Juan Hotel in Puerto Rico, compliments of Mr. John A. Tetley Co., Inc. The Jamaica Tourist Board has provided three nights' accommodations at the famous Colony Hotel in Montego Bay, Jamaica.

Second prize will bring an exciting three days of enchantment for two at Milton Prell's Aladdin Hotel in Las Vegas. Gail Patrick

Jackson, television producer and active Delta Zeta member, will award these prizes. Also participating in the program will be a "Miss Flame Fantasy" from each of Delta Zeta's collegiate chapters in Southern California.

As in the past, Delta Zeta will donate funds to the Uni-Betic Camp for diabetic children, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Camp for diabetic children, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic. The camp is held for a two-week period each summer in the San Bernardino mountains. Dr. William H. Grishaw heads a permanent medical staff which supervises the exacting demands of a diabetic schedule while emphasizing normal camping activities.

Council President Mrs. John F. Thomas of El Segundo, a South Bay alumnae member, will be on hand to greet an assemblage of special guests: Mmes. Ivy Baker Priest, James McNulty, Arthur Linkletter, Ozzie Nelson and Edwin Pauley. Assisting Mrs. Miller will be Mmes. Archie J. MacMillan, Raymond Flyley, De Maris Adamson, Walter Houseworth and Joseph H. Frye.

South Bay Alumnae, who will be attending, include Mmes. Gordon Anderson, Harold Spang, and Delvin J. Riessenhuber, Torrance; Norman DeWitt, Harbor City; Jess Sevy, E. W. Altstaeter, and John M. Moore, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Walter R. Wallner and James Lindsey, Palos Verdes Estates; and Miss Ruth Roider, Redondo Beach.

Chi Omega Slates

Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Jason Terry, general chairman, announced today that the Chi Omega Benefit Bridge Luncheon has been set for Saturday, March 9, at the Los Verdes Country Club, Palos Verdes Peninsula. A social hour, from 11 a.m. to 12, will precede the buffet luncheon and an afternoon of bridge.

Proceeds from this annual event will go to the South Bay Center for Educational Therapy, 1093 Pier Ave., Hermosa Beach.

All South Bay area residents are cordially invited to attend and may make reservations by calling Mmes. William Schneider, Hermosa Beach; William Franklin, Redondo Beach; Harold Hansen, San Pedro; Albert Stephenson, Palos Verdes Estates; Richard Hale, Palos Verdes Peninsula; or Wayne Schaub, Torrance.

Engagements

'Evening with Bach'

An "Evening with Bach" will be the theme for the Feb. 13 meeting of the Palos Verdes Peninsula Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon International Music Sorority. Mrs. Charles Grifing, 5110 West Silver Arrow Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, assisted by Mrs. Regis Kramer, will host the group at 7:30 p.m.

The musical program for the evening will be presented by the members of the alumnae chapter. "Crist Lag Todesbanden," the soprano and alto duet from Cantata 4, will be sung by Mrs. Edward Gingerich and Mrs. Harold Hall.

Miss Jean Campbell, mezzo-soprano, will perform the alto solo "Qui Sedes" from the Bach b minor Mass.

Mrs. Richard Brundin, pianist, will play a fantasia in c minor entitled "Partita." Two local concert artists, Mrs. Frances Steiner, cellist, and Mrs. Janet Lusk Nelson, pianist, will present the Bach "Sonata for Viola de Gamba."

Juniors Stage March of Dimes 'Shakedown'

They Got The Message

"Pay that ransom now or there will be no lunch and you cannot return to your offices," was the greeting received from the Juniors by Torrance businessmen at the March of Dimes Ransom Luncheon. Obeying orders are, from left Mayor Albert Isen and Dr. Carl Ahee, principal of Torrance High school, stuffing the March of Dimes can held by Mrs. Larry Smith, a Junior Club member.

Purpose
Of It
All

Mrs. Malcolm Hickman, field representative for the March of Dimes, reading excerpts from a letter written by a mother of a child with birth defects pointed out to those attending the March of Dimes luncheon what "heartbreak is..." and reemphasizing that "happiness is..." the March of Dimes, proceeds from which go to help children with birth defects.
